A collection of hand tools including a hammer, saw, wrench, screwdriver, and various nails and screws. The tools are arranged in a scattered pattern, with the hammer and saw being the most prominent. The hammer has a wooden handle and a metal head. The saw has a wooden handle and a metal blade with a serrated edge. The wrench is a combination wrench with a circular head and a rectangular handle. The screwdriver has a wooden handle and a metal shaft with a flat head. There are several nails and screws of different sizes and types, including a large nail, a small screw, and a long screw. The tools are drawn in a simple, clean style with black outlines and no shading.
